VISITOR AGAINST

greatest nation on earth as far as wealth and commerce are concerned, but still the law makers in Washington are willing to let foreign ships carry the coal for our ships of war, instead of giving Americans the chance to do the work.

"Would England or Germany be willing to let any other nation carry her coal? No, a thousand times no, but still representatives in Congress are perfectly satisfied to sit through session after session, and never give American shipping a chance to compete with the other nations of the earth, who have a large number of ships plying between the seaports of the world.

"The time has come that America must have a merchant marine, and it is the duty of every true loyal citizen to make his best effort to attain it, and place the American flag once more on the seas, where her ships can compete for some of the immense business that goes entirely to foreign ships.

"In case of war with a foreign country what would America do, how would her army be landed and her coal carried to supply her ships of war is a question that cannot be answered

GOLDEN FUNFEST

COHEN'S PRESENT TREAT AT ORPHEUM IS "DIFFERENT" FROM ANYTHING ELSE.

In spite of the heavy rain the Orpheum theater was crowded last evening to see Jack Golden and his excellent comedy company in sketches, skits, songs, dances and playlets.

The boxes were filled, too, for the fame of the laughter-making aggregation had been spread abroad by those fortunate enough to witness the opening program.

There was a change of doings last night and what was then presented was even an improvement on the first production.

Jack Golden started by setting the house in a grin, then a titter, then a giggle, and finally a rippling laughter.

You see, he is a progressive comedian and works his audience through the whole itinerary of fun, and in all this he is most ably supported by a charming leading lady in Miss Birdie De Laire, who has a way all her own and a mighty fetching way at that, for she fetches admiration as well as laughs.

The chorus is perhaps, all in all, the most entertaining that has ever been seen on a local stage, for the girls who make up this feature of the show are fascinating from the tips of their lissome toes to the crowns of their heads, and higher, for their coiffures are a bit higher than their heads.

They are pretty, graceful, lively, jolly, charmingly arrayed in elaborate costumes and are not afraid of displaying their agility. They have voices, too, and you want to see and hear them.

"A Mexican German" is a laughing tonic; it clears your head and leaves you in a better condition for the next day's work or play. Golden is an artist, there's no doubt about it, and, what's particularly to the point, his company is "different" from anything else ever shown here. It is clever, original and delightfully entertaining.

Joel Conen, theatrical manager, has certainly scored a popular hit in acquiring this bunch of live-ones. Again tonight!

without realizing the seriousness of the absolute worthlessness of our few ships. Japan, England, Germany and in fact every maritime nation of the earth with the possible exception of China, are able and ready to send out a large number of ships to act as transports, colliers, scout cruisers and commerce destroyers, but we are not able.

"There are many Congressmen from the middle west of the United States, who have never seen salt water, and who don't see any reason why the people should pay for a thing which in their mind is foolishness. America is paying an enormous sum of money every year to foreign shipowners for the carrying of American goods that should be carried in ships built at our own shipyards and flying the Stars and Stripes.

The matter is one that is of grave importance and the sooner the people of America get together and demand that Congress pass a subsidy bill the better. You can say for me, through the columns of your paper, that I have always been, am now, and always will be, against any law that will give foreign ships any chance to compete for trade that should belong to American ships, and I hope to see the day that our flag is once more restored to her proper position on the high seas."

LILUOKALANI

MAKES HER WILL

By deed of trust to W. O. Smith, A. S. Cleghorn and C. P. Laukea, Queen Liluokalani has turned over her estate, valued at between $150,000 and $200,000, for management of her affairs for her benefit during her lifetime, with arrangements after her death so that after certain relatives and retainers have been provided with annuities and the use of certain property, the wealth represented will be utilized for the establishment of asylums for Hawaiian and part-Hawaiian orphans, such institutions to bear the name "Liluokalani."

John Dominis Almoku is to get Washington Place and $6,000 a year; Joseph Aea gets the Walkiki residence and $1,800 a year; and C. P. Laukea gets eight acres outright.

The residence benefits go for the use of the beneficiaries named and then for the use of their heirs if any, else to return to the estates and the benefit of the asylums to be founded for orphans.

The income from the trust estate will go to payment of taxes, insurance premiums, repair, maintenance and improvement of property, administration expenses and payment of interest on mortgage indebtedness evidenced by promissory note of Nov. 10, 1908, for $70,000 to Claus Spreckels & Co; and as often as she desires the net income will be paid to the Queen during her life.

BRIBERY IN PHILIPPINES.

New Governor General to Investigate Election Corruption There.

MANILA, Nov. 11.—W. Cameron Forbes today assumed the office of Governor General of the Philippines. The formal inauguration will take place November 24.

Among the responsibilities left with his successor by the retiring Governor General, James F. Smith, is an investigation which the latter ordered of charges of corruption at the recent general elections. Protests have been made in several provinces, the specific allegations including the misuse of money in South Manila and through out the province of Laguna. The Nationalists were generally successful in the election of Assemblymen and provincial Governors.
